Dear Graduate Student,

I am very sorry to tell you that roughly half of you did not receive teaching evaluations this past semester because of a software malfunction that failed to solicit evaluations from some undergraduates. I apologize for this error. I understand how much work you put into your teaching and how dedicated you are to this aspect of your graduate training.

The malfunction, which has never occurred before, affected teaching fellows at the TF10 level in charge of discussion sections, 539 total. It has now been fixed. One reassuring discovery in addressing it was that nominations for prize teaching fellowships were not affected, and in fact saw a substantial increase this semester.

I thank you for your patience this week, and I send you my best wishes for the summer ahead.

Sincerely,

Pamela Schirmeister

Sr. Associate Dean, GSAS
